

CONGRATULATIONS, YOU ARE NOW THE PROUD OWNER OF THE SUPER
"GETTING TO KNOW ONE ANOTHER" GAME CALLED:

The object of the game is very simple... getting to know one another while using your imagination and just having a good time! There are no winners or losers, just get ready for lots of laughs and plenty of surprises. It's all in the answers... this game can be as structured or as imaginative as your groups answers to the questions.

1. Start the game by having your group face one another by sitting in a circle or square around a table.
2. Place all of the glasses (including any extras you may have already collected) into the center of the table.
3. Next, ask everyone in the group to choose a pair of glasses from the collection and pass it to the person on their right. Once everyone in the group has their glasses on, ask that they all try to imagine themselves as the proud owner of those glasses along with all of it's owner traits and history.
4. Next, ask one person from your group to start the game by choosing one card from the question deck and have them read it out loud for the entire group. Once that person has finished answering all three questions on the card, the game continues with the next person choosing a card and so on. Play until all cards have been used.
5. Game Variations:
 - Extra blank cards have been added to the game so that you can add some of your own questions.
 - Once everyone has answered a 3-part question you could have a glasses swap and start the process over again with everyone wearing new glasses.
 - Ask people to choose and read cards for each other.
 - Have everyone choose their own glasses.
 - Put glasses on each players chair before your group enters.
 - Have everyone in the group answer each question.
 - Attach unique names or add accessories to the glasses for added fun.
